

Table lamp
18 W
2300 Lumen
CRI90

Description: Imperfetto is the result of the research on both symmetrical and asymmetrical inclinations that looks for and achieve the perfect balance in the movement. A match of various solids creating their own harmony of shapes. Different from each perspective, it unveils a new own detail from each possible viewpoint. The colour contrast enhances its finishes.

Plus: Different from every perspective, it allows you to capture a new detail of itself from every point you observe it. Imperfetto is a furnishing element, by its nature a protagonist. The contrast of the colors enhances its finishes. It is the result of careful stylistic and mechanical research, very attentive to the sustainability of the product. The LEDs are easily replaceable to ensure the lamp's reparability and durability over time.
