Rules for Elesi Luce Project 2020 Prize

Elesi S.r.l. with registered office in Trebaseleghe (PD) in Via Magellano, 8 and its legal representative in the person of Mr. Maurizio Betteto announce the Elesi Luce Project Prize open to all professionals (B2B) in the lighting sector (specialist shops, lighting engineering and/or interior design firms, installers, lighting and interior designers).

Objective

To award a prize to the best project using lighting products from the current Elesi Luce catalogue. A jury of sector experts has been designated to select the winning project.

Rules

To take part in the competition and awarding of the prize, participants shall send the company, accompanied by appropriate form, the documentation on installation of products from the Elesi Luce 2020 catalogue in a project (residential, commercial or hospitality) which they have carried out from 01/02/2020 to 31/12/2020. "Projects carried out" means the lighting products purchased and installed during the above period.

The following documentation is required:

- Completed application form;
- Photographs in digital format (.jpg or .tiff) of the location showing the model of the lighting product installed.

The documentation must reach the company in digital format by and no later than 31/12/2020 and be sent to the email address: info@elesiluce.it specifying in the subject "Competition 2020". Within 10 days Elesi Luce shall acknowledge receipt of the documentation and correctness of the information. If no reply is received, it is understood that the material has not been received and it must be re-sent.

Duration of the competition: from 1st February 2020 to 31st December 2020.

The project, documented according to the rules, and the winner will be chosen by 15/02/2021.

Prize

The prize consists of one night for two people in a double room at Hotel Villa Cipriani in Asolo and gourmet dinner for two at the Villa Cipriani restaurant. Arrangements shall be made between the winner and the hotel for booking in the period between 15th March 2021 and 30th June 2021 or between 15/09/2021 and 30/11/2021. The prize may not be converted into money or any other form.

Notes

The jury, consisting of sector experts, will assess the projects submitted at their discretion. Upon submittal of the documentation by the professional/designer, the latter accepts all liability concerning presentation of the project and photographic material. Upon submittal of the documentation, the competitor declares that he/she is in no way in breach of copyright and is in possession of all the rights pertaining to the project. Upon submittal of the photographs for taking part in the competition, the participant consents to publication of said photographs in the company's communications (in all forms, none excluded), thus exempting Elesi Luce from requesting usage rights. The competitor may submit several forms, one for each project carried out.

These rules and the application form can be found on the www.elesiluce.it website in the Download area.
